Welcome to Westside Studio of Performing Arts!

If you are a new student or a returning student this brochure along with our website westsidestudio.org should tell you everything you need to know about us. Our studio offers classes for children and adults from beginners through advanced. Our staff is made up of professionals who have years of teaching experience. Providing quality training, ensuring individual attention and creating a positive learning environment are all priorities of Westside Studio.

Through our carefully designed and graded teaching system, students not only learn to dance but also learn concentration, pride in effort and attention to detail. Whether in pursuit of a professional career or to simply derive the rewards and physical benefits that a dance class can offer, Westside Studio has something for everyone.

Attendance & Absence

Students are expected to attend all of their classes we appreciate being notified by phone if a student will be absent. Frequent absences may result in a student being removed from a class. Making up classes must be done within the registered session. (See Tuition & Payment Policies)

Performance

An annual Showcase names De`file` (day-fee-Lay) held at the end of Spring Session involves all classes. This gives students, parents and public an opportunity to observe the total curriculum. Students are encouraged but not required to participate. Production fees are due at time of Spring Registration.

Westside Studio is also home to the St George Ballet Company's annual Nutcracker Ballet. Auditions will be held Saturday August 28, 2010. More information can be found on the website calendar www.westsidestudio.org.
